

Certificate of Authenticity

24th June 2014

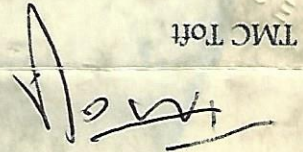

We certify that

The viola here described was made by Ian Hignield in Buxton, England, 2010.
It is a copy of Nicolo Bergonzi.

Description

The back, length 395mm, is in two pieces of quarter-sawn maple, marked with a faint curl of narrow width; the ribs, scroll and neck of similar wood. The front is of medium grain spruce and the varnish of a light brown colour on a golden ground.

The viola is in excellent condition.
